Diocesan Family Conference

IMPORTANT FAMILY CONFERENCE UPDATE: Sadly, our dear Fr Clair has taken ill and will not be able to join us at our Diocesan Family Conference this Aug 12-14. The good news is, God has promptly answered our prayers, and has given us a new keynote speaker, Sister John Mary Sullivan FSE, from the Office of Life, Marriage and Family for the Archdiocese of Vancouver. Sister Sullivan, a graduate of the John Paul II Institute for Studies on Marriage and the Family in Washington, D.C., worked as a family therapist for eight years. As a Franciscan Sister of the Eucharist, she is passionate about all things family; marriage preparation, fertility awareness and natural family planning, personal formation, marriage enrichment, and parenting. We are thrilled and excited to have her join us and we know you and your family will be richly blessed by her story. Bishop Gary, Fr Stephen Paine and Fr Dean Henderson will join us too as we pray, play and deepen our family relationships on the beautiful shores of Nanoose Bay. To register please go to rcd.victoria.org For more information email reine_and_ian@hotmail.com

Models of Mercy

by Tom Hoopes, Register Correspondent

In the year of Mercy it seems appropriate to reflect on Mercy and this article based on the Readings from Sunday (June 12th) offers great insights.

Readings: 2 Samuel 12:7-10, 13; Psalm 32:1-2, 5, 7, 11; Galatians 2:16, 19-21; Luke 7:36-8:3 or 7:36-50

David, a model of repentance

Too often, we respond with defensiveness and rationalization when we are confronted by our sin, proudly refusing to admit we are wrong. When David is confronted by the prophet Nathan today, he responds with repentance. "I have sinned against the Lord," he says, boldly and clearly. God responds the way he always does to honest repentance:

"The Lord on his part has forgiven your sin," says Nathan. "You shall not die." Today's Psalm captures the stages of David's repentance: the straightforward admission of fault ("I acknowledged my sin to you; my guilt I covered not"); total forgiveness from God ("You took away the guilt of my sin"); and euphoric joy at freedom from sin ("With glad cries of freedom, you will ring me round"). All of this is available to each of us.

Jesus Christ, the model of forgiveness

Jesus in today's Gospel is dining with a Pharisee when a weeping woman bathes his feet with costly ointment in an elegant alabaster jar. He reveals why the woman is behaving this way: He has forgiven her many sins.

He compares himself to a creditor faced with a debtor who owes nearly two years' of wages.

When he gives the creditor's reason for forgiving the huge debt, he reveals the divine logic of God's mercy: "Since they were unable to repay the debt, he forgave it." The Pharisee at dinner defines the woman by her sin and dismisses her; to him, she is helplessly trapped in her sin. Jesus refuses to condemn the woman. Instead, he frees her from her trap and finds a way for her to go forward in her life.

She cannot pay her debt, so he takes the loss on himself.

The sinful woman, a model of worship

This is one of several women whom Jesus puts forth as a model of the Christian life. "When I entered your house, you did not give me water for my feet, but she has bathed them with her tears," he says. "You did not give me a kiss, but she has not ceased kissing my feet since the time I entered." The Catechism treats her behavior as a model, too. "Contemplative prayer is the prayer of the child of God, of the forgiven sinner who agrees to welcome the love by which he is loved and who wants to respond to it by loving even more," the Catechism says (2712).

The forgiveness we receive should inspire us to prostrate ourselves at Christ's feet, too, and pour out all our energies on the God who has freed us: It should lead us to worship.

Paul, a model of the life of grace

This is part of his story in the second chapter of Galatians, describing his movement from a sinful life persecuting the Church to his conversion and new life in Christ. He describes that new life: "Christ lives in me," and "I live by faith in the Son of God, who has loved me and given himself up for me."

He calls this being "justified." Vacation Bible schools often describe being "justified" as living "just as if I'd" never sinned. Paul is not justified in some automatic way by external observances; like David and the sinful woman, he is justified by grace freely given by Jesus. His forgiveness leads to a new life in God.

In this Year of Mercy, we all have the opportunity to be set free by Jesus, thank him for paying our debt and receive the grace to live as if we had never sinned at all.

St. Andrew's Regional High School

Congratulations to all of our student athletes who were recognized last week at our Sports Awards Night. To balance the academic life of a student with extra-curricular pursuits such as school sports requires much discipline and good time management. Well done, students. Thank you also to outgoing Athletic Director, and Master of Ceremonies for the evening, Mr. Kevin Mennie. Kevin is leaving St. Andrew's after 10 years of service and we wish him well in his new position. We look forward to the Academic Awards Night next week when more students will be recognized for their academic achievements over the course of the school year.

We will be presenting a number of scholarships and bursaries that evening to commemorate the many successes of our students.

Next week is a time of celebration for the Class of 2016. On Tuesday, June 28th, we hold our Graduation Mass and Commissioning Ceremony. To the Class of 2016, I am exceptionally proud of all of you for reaching this milestone. Please enjoy this time with family and friends. I wish you a life of happiness and I extend the invitation for you to visit us at any time. Welcome to the St. Andrew's alumni. We couldn't be more excited for you. Congratulations!

Thank you to the following staff members who are leaving St. Andrew's at the end of this school year: the aforementioned Mr. Kevin Mennie, Mrs. Cori Brandt, Mrs. Allison Ker, Mr. Brian Devenport, Mrs. Sherri MacNeil, and Mr. Blake Andison. Thank you for all of your hard work and for everything you have done to support the students of St. Andrew's Regional High. I would also like to thank our police liaison officer, Constable Paul Egli, who is also leaving us this year. All of these terrific people have helped the heart of St. Andrew's beat and I wish them well in the years ahead.

Finally, I would like to say thank you to Ms. Marianne Spanier who is retiring from teaching after 30 years, 27 at St. Andrew's. Ms. Spanier has helped countless students blossom into artists and has instilled in them a love of art and a desire to be creative. Marianne has touched many lives at St. Andrew's and though we are sad to see her leave, we all know she will enjoy retirement and visit often. To the entire student body, to you the parents, and to the staff of St. Andrew's Regional High School, I wish you a blessed summer with God's love shining down upon you. Have a safe and splendid vacation.

Yours in Christ, Andrew J. Keleher, Principal
