During the flu season

At all times, but especially during the flu season, it is important to receive Communion in the proper manner. If receiving on the hand, please extend your hand, palm totally flat, with the other hand underneath the hand you hold flat. Your hand must not be curved. The minister ought not to touch your hand when giving you Communion. If he or she does touch your hand, then you are not extending your hand in the correct manner. If receiving on the tongue, please stick out your tongue. Do not simply open your mouth. In all cases, when the minister says, "The Body of Christ" the response is "Amen".

Also, come sufficiently close to the minister so that he or she does not have to reach and hold your hands at a reasonable height. If you are not comfortable sharing the sign of peace by touching another person you should feel no pressure to do so. All of us must be aware of such sensitive matters in the intimate life of the Christian community and we should expect that some will refrain from the sign of peace out of care for our well-being and not out of unkindness. And finally, if you are sick, please stay home. This is an act of charity so as to prevent others from becoming ill.
