'Legacies'

Our Lady Queen of Peace acknowledges with gratitude past legacies which we use to maintain the integrity of our Church.

Legacies are a way of providing assurance that the parish has income or savings in the event of unforeseen emergencies.

The monthly 'Building Fund and Collection' pays for maintenance/replacement items.

Sacramental Information

Baptism: at Our Lady Queen of Peace you must call the office at least 3 months in advance to arrange an appointment with the Pastor. It is assumed that the family has Our Lady Queen of Peace parish connection and practices the faith by attending Sunday Mass on a weekly basis. You may meet with the Pastor and take the course even if your child has not yet been born. Parents are expected to participate in the Baptismal preparation. At least one Godparent or both must be baptized and confirmed and are practicing Catholics. Non-parishioners are required to have a Letter of Recommendation from your Pastor to have your child Baptized in our parish.

Marriage: at Our Lady Queen of Peace because the Church is deeply concerned about each marriage, couples are asked to give a minimum of six months' notice prior to the intended date of their wedding. Church policy requires that marriages be performed in your home parish – unless you are registered and attend elsewhere.

Funeral: at Our Lady Queen of Peace individual arrangements with a priest. Begin by calling the parish office.

Please Note

If you suffer from Celiac disease, we are able to offer a low-gluten Host. If you are interested, please come to the sacristy before Mass and inform the priest.

Collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada

Thank you for your contribution and solidarity! Each year, and with the generosity of Catholic faithful from coast to coast to coast, the Bishops of Canada continue their work on important doctrinal and ethical questions; ecumenical initiatives and interreligious dialogue; international relations; evangelization, faith education and catechesis; relations with Indigenous peoples; questions of social justice; and the development of a culture of life and family. In addition to their national Conference, the Bishops of Canada also meet in four Regional Assemblies (Atlantic, Quebec, Ontario and the West). The CCCB and the regional assemblies include the Bishops of the Latin Church, as well as the Eparchial Bishops of the Eastern Catholic Churches. On behalf of all Bishops of Canada, the Most Reverend Lionel Gendron, P.S.S., Bishop of Saint-Jean-Longueuil and CCCB President, shares his gratitude for the continued support of the Church in Canada, "With my prayers and thanks for your generosity, I ask the Lord to bestow his graces upon you, your families and communities."

National Catholic Health Care Week

October, 6 - 12

During National Catholic Health Care Week we give thanks for the courageous gift of Catholic health care. Whether it be in hospitals, community health centres, nursing homes, and long-term care homes, Catholic health care works to provide purpose-driven care with compassion and innovation. Each year, Catholic health care providers serve more than five million people in need. Every person who contributes to working in Catholic health care is living out the healing ministry of Jesus Christ by helping those who are most marginalized by society. We give thanks for the thousands of physicians, nurses, employees, and volunteers who give of themselves to care for all in need.

Season of Creation Synod

On the Amazon Submitted by Social Justice Committee With the Feast of St Francis, Fri. Oct. 4, the Season of Creation called for by Pope Francis will draw to a close, together with Catholics world-wide, have been invited to grow in a new love for creation and in a commitment to protect its biodiversity. The theme for the 2019 Season of Creation has been "Protecting the Web of Life." Pope Francis underlined Sept. 1, the start of this ecumenical initiative, that "this has been the season for letting our prayer be inspired anew by closeness to nature, which spontaneously leads us to give thanks to God the Creator." It has been a season to reflect on our lifestyles and the impact of our daily decisions about food, consumption, transportation, use of water, energy and many other material goods. Now is the time, he adds, "to abandon our dependence on fossil fuels and move, quickly and decisively, towards new forms of clean energy, toward a sustainable and circular economy, and to learning from indigenous peoples, whose age-old wisdom can teach us how to live in a better relationship with the environment." Although the Season of Creation is about to end, starting Sun., Oct. 6th, a three-week Synod on the Amazon begins in Rome, a momentous time for indigenous people impacted by fires and a momentous time for South American Bishops entrusted with the pastoral care of this vulnerable people. You are invited to pray for the success of the Synod and to participate in it by watching the daily press briefing which will occur daily via Vatican News.

Election Day - Mon., Oct. 21, 2019

As Canadian Catholics, and citizens, this is an opportunity to exercise our right to vote in the formation of a fair and just representative government by the people and for the people. To assist us in this very vital and important responsibility, the Episcopal Commission for Justice and Peace of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) has released a booklet entitled, 2019 Federal Election Guide: Voting as Catholics. The booklet seeks not to influence voter's choices. Rather, it encourages informed judgement, and enables opportunities for reflection on various key issues important to Catholics. These appear as underlined texts, if printed. The booklet is also available from the CCCB website at <https://www.cccb.ca/site/eng/media-room/5143-voting-as-catholics-2019-federal-election-guide>

May we seek the inspiration and guidance of the Holy Spirit, our patron saint, St. Joseph, and our Blessed Mother as we prayerfully discern the future elected government for Canada. We have a few booklets in the vestibule. More available in the Office 250.384.3884
